THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

CASH CAPITAL OVER $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

DAILY GAZETTE.

The Monitor and the Merrimac.

Correspondence of the New York Tribune.

FORTRESS MONROE, Sunday—3½ P. M.

Whether it was prudence or a sand-bar which restrained the Merrimac from making an attack yesterday, is not known. While she was surrounded with her vaporing satellites, five in number, I conversed with an ancient African, who, seated upon the bottom of a condemned yawl upon the sands, was contemplating the monster at her far-off position with eyes of telescopic power. "Uncle," said I, "why does not the Merrimac come down here?" "'Cause she can't, Massa—he! he!!" was the comforting if enigmatical reply. "I know dese waters, and I tell by de color where she is that she's aground.. 'Den, you see, bress your heart, if your eyes be good, dat de tugs are pullin' at her to get her off. When de tide be high, may be she come down; but, Massa, she neber go back! He! he!! Dat Monitor smash her jaw, shure!"

I am decidedly of this African brother's opinion. The Monitor will whip the Merrimac in half the time that Heenan whipped Sayers. Perhaps it would be more just to measure by the time in which David disposed of Goliah, and say that she will sink her in the throwing from a sling of fifty well-selected brook pebbles.

I visited the Monitor this morning, and examined her thoroughly, under the courteous showing of her commander, Jeffers. The vessel does not float that is a match for her. She is literally the Sovereign of the Seas. Experience has demonstrated the advantage of giving to some of her parts a spheroidal form; but, take her all in all, she is, without experiment, and complete at birth, the perfect idea of a war ship. The revolving battery was the conception of a genius. Ericsson has settled forever this characteristic of the developed American war vessel.

Capt. Jeffers, in the course of the inspection of the ship, made a remark which I feel it a duty to make public. He said: "Sir: If I knew as much of the Merrimac from newspaper descriptions and pictorial representations and diagrams, as the rebels know of the Monitor, I would go up to Norfolk and sink her before sundown." This was the only complaint, if complaint it can be called, which this brave sailor made of the unprincipled and stupid feverishness of the managers of many of our daily and weekly papers to publish war news, without the slightest care or thought of the aid and comfort it may give the enemy.

Insurance brokers, underwriters, ship owners, merchants, and money lenders of New York, take heart. Have no fear of this little mailed warrior of yours, in the Hampton Roads. She will whip her big adversary, and all her backers with her. You may underwrite on her, make charter-parties on her, lend money on her, and bet on her. Northern genius, ascendant in peace, will yet show its ascendancy in war.

THE LATE CAPTAIN CARSON.—Captain Irving W. Carson, of General Grant's staff, who was killed at the battle of Pittsburgh Landing, is deserving not only of especial notice but of the lasting gratitude of his countrymen. At the outbreak of the rebellion he had just been admitted to the practice of the law at Chicago, Illinois. He had been compelled for the want of the means of support while pursuing his studies to act as brakeman on the Illinois Central railroad, reading for the law at leisure hours. When the rebels fired upon Fort Sumter he was one of the first to shoulder his musket as a private. He was soon promoted, however, and for the past eight or nine months he has been acting as a scout, and has been of very great service to the army of the west. Wherever it has been necessary to send a man he has always been ready to go, and has always been successful. He was repeatedly within the enemy's fortifications at Columbus, and visited Memphis, Springfield, Missouri, and other places within the enemy's lines. His whole soul was in his work.

A TOUCHING INCIDENT.—A correspondent, on board the steamboat January, which was conveying our wounded from Pittsburgh Landing, says:

As we first entered the cabin, we were struck by the pallid and ghastly face of one of the poor fellows stretched upon the floor at our feet. As we passed him, he faintly begged for water. He breathed with great labor and was suffering, as the Doctor told us, with some internal injury. In a half an hour later we saw him again, the Doctor bending over him and trying to get him to tell his name. It was with great difficulty he articulated.

"Tell me now, quietly and slowly; don't be in a hurry," said the Doctor, in the kindest tones.

"Company —, First Ohio Cavalry," he struggled out.

"And what is your name?"

"H-i-r-a-m H-e-n-k-e-f-e-r!"

The Doctor hurried back to record his name, and as we returned we were startled to find him dead!—his body straightened by the last throe, and his fixed eyes staring coldly and vacantly upwards.

"Poor boy," murmured the Doctor, as he reached down, and gathering up his blanket, cast it over his body and face.

OPERATIONS IN NORTH CAROLINA.—Col. John Kurtz, of the 23d Massachusetts regiment, arrived here this morning from Newbern, and is now stopping at the Astor House. It will be remembered that his regiment participated in the battle of Roanoke and the attack on Newbern. When he left Newbern everything was quiet. The Union troops were in readiness to attack Fort Macon, heavy siege guns having been placed within three hundred yards of the fort. Fortifications have been thrown up outside of Newbern commanding the Trent and Neuse roads. Gunboats have been stationed in the river so that the approach to the place is well protected against all insurgents. The army was in good health and spirits, and impatiently awaiting orders to capture Fort Macon.—New York Commercial Advertiser, April 14.

Volney Hickox, of Springfield, Illinois, is appointed upon the staff of Major General Fremont, with the rank of captain, and assigned to General Kelly.

The remains of Johnson, the head of the late rebel provisional government in Kentucky, arrived in Louisville last night. Johnson was killed at Pittsburgh Landing, which seems to have been a bad place for the Johnstons.

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75,

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Gauges, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured expecially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

☞ Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

☞ All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

N. SWAGER,

WOULD call the attention of the people of Janesville, Rock and adjoining counties, to his increased facilities for manufacturing

PARLOR, CHAMBER AND COMMON FURNIRURE

which he will sell at Greatly Reduced Prices.

In addition to the articles manufactured by himself he keeps a large stock of Imported Furniture, which embraces everything needed for household use, and which, as well as his own manufacture, is of the latest styles and superior quality.

Coffins, of all sizes and trimmed in every variety of style constantly on hand.

Metallic Burial Cases and Caskets.

I have just received a large assortment of these articles, of an improved style and perfectly air tight. As none have been kept in this city for the last three or four years, much inconvenience has been experienced in sending for them.

I invite an examination of all my stock, knowing that I can give satisfaction both in quality and price. Shop on Milwaukee street, second door above Central Bank, sign of the coffin. N. SWAGER.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

DAILY GAZETTE.

The Monitor and the Merrimac.

Correspondence of the New York Tribune.

FORTRESS MONROE, Sunday—3½ P. M.

Whether it was prudence or a sand-bar which restrained the Merrimac from making an attack yesterday, is not known. While she was surrounded with her vaporing satellites, five in number, I conversed with an ancient African, who, seated upon the bottom of a condemned yawl upon the sands, was contemplating the monster at her far-off position with eyes of telescopic power. "Uncle," said I, "why does not the Merrimac come down here?" "'Cause she can't, Massa—he! he!!" was the comforting if enigmatical reply. "I know dese waters, and I tell by de color where she is that she's aground. Den, you see, bress your heart, if your eyes be good, dat de tugs are pullin' at her to get her off. When de tide be high, may be she come down; but, Massa, she neber go back! He! he!! Dat Monitor smash her jaw, shure!"

I am decidedly of this African brother's opinion. The Monitor will whip the Merrimac in half the time that Heenan whipped Sayers. Perhaps it would be more just to measure by the time in which David disposed of Goliah, and say that she will sink her in the throwing from a sling of fifty well-selected brook pebbles.

I visited the Monitor this morning, and examined her thoroughly, under the courteous showing of her commander, Jeffers. The vessel does not float that is a match for her. She is literally the Sovereign of the Seas. Experience has demonstrated the advantage of giving to some of her parts a spheroidal form; but, take her all in all, she is, without experiment, and complete at birth, the perfect idea of a war ship. The revolving battery was the conception of a genius. Ericsson has settled forever this characteristic of the developed American war vessel.

Capt. Jeffers, in the course of the inspection of the ship, made a remark which I feel it a duty to make public. He said: "Sir: If I knew as much of the Merrimac from newspaper descriptions and pictorial representations and diagrams, as the rebels know of the Monitor, I would go up to Norfolk and sink her before sundown." This was the only complaint, if complaint it can be called, which this brave sailor made of the unprincipled and stupid feverishness of the managers of many of our daily and weekly papers to publish war news, without the slightest care or thought of the aid and comfort it may give the enemy.

Insurance brokers, underwriters, ship owners, merchants, and money lenders of New York, take heart. Have no fear of this little mailed warrior of yours, in the Hampton Roads. She will whip her big adversary, and all her backers with her. You may underwrite on her, make charter-parties on her, lend money on her, and bet on her. Northern genius, ascendant in peace, will yet show its ascendancy in war.

THE LATE CAPTAIN CARSON.—Captain Irving W. Carson, of General Grant's staff, who was killed at the battle of Pitsburgh Landing, is deserving not only of especial notice but of the lasting gratitude of his countrymen. At the outbreak of the rebellion he had just been admitted to the practice of the law at Chicago, Illinois. He had been compelled for the want of the means of support while pursuing his studies to act as brakeman on the Illinois Central railroad, reading for the law at leisure hours. When the rebels fired upon Fort Sumter he was one of the first to shoulder his musket as a private. He was soon promoted, however, and for the past eight or nine months he has been acting as a scout, and has been of very great service to the army of the west. Wherever it has been necessary to send a man he has always been ready to go, and has always been successful. He was repeatedly within the enemy's fortifications at Columbus, and visited Memphis, Springfield, Missouri, and other places within the enemy's lines. His whole soul was in his work.

A TOUCHING INCIDENT.—A correspondent, on board the steamboat January, which was conveying our wounded from Pittsburgh Landing, says:

As we first entered the cabin, we were struck by the pallid and ghastly face of one of the poor fellows stretched upon the floor at our feet. As we passed him, he faintly begged for water. He breathed with great labor and was suffering, as the Doctor told us, with some internal injury. In a half an hour later we saw him again, the Doctor bending over him and trying to get him to tell his name. It was with great difficulty he articulated.

"Tell me now, quietly and slowly; don't be in a hurry," said the Doctor, in the kindest tones.

"Company —, First Ohio Cavalry," he struggled out.

"And what is your name?"

"H-i-r-a-m H-e-n-k-e-f-e-r!"

The Doctor hurried back to record his name, and as we returned we were startled to find him dead!—his body straightened by the last throe, and his fixed eyes staring coldly and vacantly upwards.

"Poor boy," murmured the Doctor, as he reached down, and gathering up his blanket, cast it over his body and face.

OPERATIONS IN NORTH CAROLINA.—Col. John Kurtz, of the 23d Massachusetts regiment, arrived here this morning from Newbern, and is now stopping at the Astor House. It will be remembered that his regiment participated in the battle of Roanoke and the attack on Newbern. When he left Newbern everything was quiet. The Union troops were in readiness to attack Fort Macon, heavy siege guns having been placed within three hundred yards of the fort. Fortifications have been thrown up outside of Newbern commanding the Trent and Neuse roads. Gunboats have been stationed in the river so that the approach to the place is well protected against all insurgents. The army was in good health and spirits, and impatiently awaiting orders to capture Fort Macon.—New York Commercial Advertiser, April 14.

Volney Hickox, of Springfield, Illinois, is appointed upon the staff of Major General Fremont, with the rank of captain, and assigned to General Kelly.

The remains of Johnson, the head of the late rebel provisional government in Kentucky, arrived in Louisville last night. Johnson was killed at Pittsburgh Landing, which seems to have been a bad place for the Johnstons.

GREAT REDUCTION

SINGER & CO.'S
STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $75,

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the world for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

Forever float that standard sheet!
Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

Fort Pillow or Fort Wright.

The newspaper correspondents have so mixed these two forts together that they hardly know which they are talking about. Fort Pillow is situated a short distance above Memphis, and Fort Wright is above Randolph, and 69 miles below New Madrid. It is Fort Wright which Com. Foote is reported to have taken with his flotilla. It has been represented to be a stronger position than Island No. 10, having eleven batteries, besides the fort proper. Opposite the last battery obstructions were placed which compel boats to pass close to the shore. The river curves at this point very similar to the short bend at No. 10, the channel sweeping an entire half circle. It has been predicted that there would be much difficulty in capturing this fort, defended by so many guns, and by some 17,000 troops, but it appears it has quickly fallen before our gunboats, if the report of its surrender is correct.

True, Every Word.

"Keynote," the Nashville correspondent of the New York World, closes one of his letters with the following reflections upon the possible contingencies of the future:

"No pen of observation and foresight can fall upon this topic without writing warmly and nervously about it. It is the most commanding topic of the hour. None of more consequence or moment can possibly engage an American's reflection.—We have reached the conclusion that this damnable ingratitude of a rebellion will be put down. We have not reached the conclusion that it will stay down. Even Europe will concede the former. It is the latter that the London Times and the third Napoleon say no to with such sarcasm and satisfaction. And why? Because (they say) what you may have the momentary battle-frenzy to conquer, you have not the steadfast strength to keep. You whip your enemies on the field, and condole with them in their subjugation. You have the hand to put them down, but not the heart to keep them down. You have already granted them the dignity of foreign belligerents. You will swear the very arch-leader of them and let him go. You dare not put a man of them to death save in the dignified belligerent manner of battle. You will win the war, but naught else. You will obtain everything but obedience, without which nothing is obtained.

"So talks Europe and the thrones. My soul is sick with the suspicion that they judge us properly. This stupendous struggle for stability and dear life will be a failure and a silliness if it be not rounded off with the gallows. Any child may pull a nail out that is not clinched.

"An ounce of blood upon the block will do more to cement the Union than an ocean of blood on the field."

WISCONSIN TROOPS IN MCDOWELL'S CORPS.—Accounts just received from the 2d, 6th and 7th regiments, composing, with the 19th Indiana, Cutler's brigade, in King's division, state that they marched, April 4th, from Fairfax Seminary to the outer line of the department of the Rappahannock, and were, April 10th, six miles beyond Manassas Junction, enjoying horrible weather and terrible roads, expecting to move forward whenever the proper time should be supposed to have come.

Special dispatch to the Chicago Evening Journal.

ST. LOUIS, April 18.

Officers arriving here from Pittsburgh Landing this evening report all quiet there, but active preparations are making for another battle, which was generally thought be imminent. It was supposed that the enemy were preparing to make a second dashing attack upon the federal forces, as a large portion of his army was between Corinth and Pittsburgh, and only a few miles distant from our outposts. So close, indeed, were the two hostile posts that skirmishing and picket fighting were continually going on.

My informant thinks that a second great battle cannot be far off, and that it will take place either on the field of the first engagement, or about midway between Pittsburgh Landing and Corinth. G. N.

COTTON CULTURE IN ILLINOIS.—WASHINGTON, April 15.—A western farmer is in town after cotton seed, who planted 13 acres to cotton in Illinois last season, and the produce was 13 bales, which he sold for $80 per bale. He says one of his neighbors will plant 2,000 acres this spring, and he will go heavily into the business himself.

A Fearful Retribution Due---Change of War Policy Demanded.

Correspondence of the Chicago Evening Journal.

CAIRO, Wednesday evening, April 16.

The opinion appears to be gaining ground in army circles that we have played kid glove war long enough. Wounded soldiers returning home make no complaints against officers, nor of the controlling policy. They feel that they have done their duty, and will rest a while and recruit health and strength, enjoying the consciousness of having done the best they could. But their friends, who seek them in anxious grief, give freer license to their speech. Denunciation from non-military men often falls unheeded—for it may be undeserved. But when questions of common humanity come up they not only have a right to speak, but have a right to be heard.

That want of caution and of definite plans which cut off our fellow citizens and sends grief through every neighborhood deserves not only the severest reprobation; but the people, the civilians, have a right to sit in judgment now. There is a fearful retribution coming for some men. Who they may be, the development of events will show. But, severe as the ordeal of justice may be, it cannot bring back again the departed, whose valor invited death.

I can but observe the change of feeling in men who have visited the battle field. When they were at home their humane sentiments prompted them to advocate the kindest treatment and the greatest ease to conquered rebels. After they have witnessed the results of battles they look at the scene through new eyes. A burst of illumination comes in upon them and they are not the men they were before. They say, enough of parley and pity—let rebels receive a rebel's doom.

We are not fighting men who honor us as equals. Subdued and in prison they despise us. Beaten, they are but whipped puppies who fawn at our feet for a while. They profess change of sentiment, and want to go to their homes, and agree to return to the quiet walks of life. On these fair protestations we administer the oath of allegiance with great magnanimity. They take it as a sick patient a loathsome potion, and speedily abjure the oath as the sickened stomach ejects the hated dose.

Hundreds have been released, here as elsewhere, on taking the oath of allegiance, who turned around and spat upon the men who had dealt thus graciously with them.

There is no use in parleying with secession longer. Its viper fangs will poison as long as they have power to strike. The iron heel of loyalty must be set upon its head. There is no killing it by kindness, nor reforming it by love. It will bite and sting, and with venom to the tip of its tail, so long as the sun of rebellion shines. If, according to Parson Brownlow, rebellion is "Hell born," what impropriety is there in sending the children back to their father? Have we not played "puss in mittens" long enough? What can we gain by this kid-gloved warfare? War is terrible—revolting in every Christian sense. Since it exists let the means of warfare be used to put down rebellion. And, above all, let rebels feel that there is a mighty power in loyalty that will not be tampered with.

These are but a reflection of the sentiments of private citizens returning from the battle-field.

Our country never knew rebellion before, except that natal throe which gave it existence. It has not yet learned to treat with rebellion as it deserves. It has not yet, in its conduct towards rebels, manifested that discrimination which characterizes good business men. Their day is yet to come. May it come speedily and with the demonstration of power. THURSTON.

EMANCIPATION IN WASHINGTON.

A Holiday--Kidnappers at Work--Another Red-Tape Disaster.

[Correspondence of the N. Y. Tribune.]

WASHINGTON, April 13.

Let the friends of justice and national honor breathe freer now, for the act giving liberty to 3,000 slaves has received congressional sanction. Yet, let them not be entirely joyful, for much of its saving power is gone, on account of the executive seal being so long withheld. For this be the senate responsible, in whose hands the bill still lingers.

To-day has been a holiday, vocal with praises and hallelujahs from the bond who look towards to-morrow with hope; yet has it been also a sad day, full of tears and aching hearts, and terrible partings forever, because the indolent senate—may I not say recreant senate?—did not hold a session yesterday, and finish the good work they began, by sending the law to the president, and asking him to give it life on the anniversary of Sumter, and so the half born blessing, which might have sprung defiantly to its feet, and carried balm to a thousand hearts and homes, is nothing but dead parchment on the senatorial table. Its voice should have rang through this capital like a trumpet-blast yesterday; but I suppose the clerk's dainty fingers tucked the charter under the pink tape girth on Friday night, as composedly as if human hopes and human lives were not bound up in it.

For, it must be understood, during the three days and nights that elapse before it can be approved and proclaimed, the red-handed kidnappers are driving their business with energy. The number to whom the boon of freedom will finally come is diminishing every hour. The hirelings of slavery are seeking assiduously for the wretched beings whom liberty is so near, in parlors and kitchens and garrets, in hotels and streets, in alleys and by-places where they flee for refuge, and are dragging them thence, and carrying them into Maryland. Much of the infernal work is done in the night, and so energetically is the work prosecuted that nearly all the slaves who will bring more than the stipulation in the bill ($300) will be taken away before it becomes a law. The slave power, though weakened and hampered by the war, seems to have lost none of its financial sagacity; it will make, once more, the same "good bargain" that has always distinguished its transactions, and will cheat the government as usual. The slaves who will remain to be freed on Tuesday, judging from their present unwilling exodus, would not bring an average of $200, if sold at the auction block in Maryland. Yet is the bargain a good one, though the shambles' value is against us, for no gold can be an equivalent for freedom, and national self respect is forever without price.

In anticipation of the liberty day that seems so near them, the slaves all over the city, and the free negroes, who are connected with them by the ties of kindred and sympathy, are dressed in their best to-day (many of them in their seedy best, to be sure), and are assembled to celebrate this Sabbath as a day of praise and thanksgiving. I have talked with several "candidates" this evening, from whom I gather that this "Thanksgiving Day" has been kept joyously in nearly all of their seventeen churches. There seems to have been a preconcert among them, and the afternoon was devoted to love-feasts.

THE STRAITS OPEN.—A dispatch from Milwaukee, received by parties here, this morning, gives the cheering announcement that the straits of Mackinac are open, and that several propellers have arrived at Milwaukee.

This will be glad tidings to our vessel men, forwarders, merchants, and to the west generally. The era of trade and commerce opens here in earnest with the opening of navigation.—Chicago Journal 18th.

Last Night's Report.

BALTIMORE, April 18.

At intervals last night and this morning heavy cannonading could be heard in the direction of Yorktown. A party of deserters who came into our lines report the arrival of Jeff. Davis in the rebel camp, and that it was understood he would take command in the approaching battle. They represent the enemy to be in great force, and the work of entrenching to be progressing throughout the peninsula. Reinforcements were constantly arriving from Norfolk, Fredericksburg, and even North Carolina, and the rebel generals openly declared their intention to make this the great battle of the war, and the strongest conviction is expressed of triumph over the federal forces, and driving them from the peninsula. There is almost constant skirmishing going on by the riflemen, and occasionally shot and shell are thrown with great rapidity.

There was quite a heavy skirmish this morning, beyond Warwick Court House, on the James river. The enemy attempted to turn our left flank. The attack was made in quite heavy force, but the enemy were repulsed, after a brisk artillery duel. The loss of the enemy is thought to have been quite heavy. We lost about a dozen in killed and wounded.

PHILADELPHIA, April 18.

Parson Brownlow was received at Independence Hall by the city authorities, this morning, Mr. Tregg, president of the common council, received him with words of the heartiest welcome. Parson Brownlow replied in a characteristic address of some length.

WASHINGTON, April 18.

The following was received at the war department, to-day, from Gen. Hunter, commanding in South Carolina:

PORT ROYAL, S. C., April 15.
via Sandy Hook, 18th.

We opened our batteries on Fort Pulaski, on the morning of the 10th inst. After thirty hours' continuous firing, a practicable breach was made, and preparations for storming were about to commence, when the rebel flag was struck, We have captured 47 guns, 7,000 shot and shells, 40,000 pounds of powder, 360 prisoners with their small arms and accoutrements, and a good supply of provisions. One of our men was killed—none wounded.

The following dispatches were received, to-day, at the war department from Gen. McClellan:

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, April 18th, 1861.

At about half an hour after midnight, the enemy attacked Smith's position, and attempted to carry his guns. Smith repulsed them handsomely, and took some prisoners. I have no details, but will forward them as soon as my aids return. The firing was very heavy. All is now quiet.

Second Dispatch.—My position, occupied yesterday by Smith, was entrenched last night, so that we have been able to prevent the enemy from working to-day, and have kept his guns silent. The same result at the batteries at Hyatt's Mills.

Dispatches to the War Department.—Yorktown was shelled by our gunboats and four barges, but without effect. There has been a good deal of firing from the Yorktown land batteries.

CHICAGO, April 18.

The Evening Journal says: We learn from private sources, this morning, that Fort Wright was attacked by Com. Foote's flotilla on Monday, and has been captured. We presume our information is correct, as it comes from one at Cairo who knows about everything going on.

FORSYTH, Mo., April 13.

Correspondence of the Missouri Democrat.—Judge Murphy, and Dr. Johnson, of Huntsville, Arkansas, arrived at Gen. Curtis' headquarters, having been obliged to fly from their homes, since the battle of Pea Ridge, by threats made against them by a band of Texan Rangers, stationed at Osark. Murphy was in the Arkansas seceding convention whose vote was cast against the secession of the state. At Huntsville, Union men are depressed with gloom, not being aware of the recent victories, no mails having been received since Price's flight from Springfield. It was proclaimed by the rebels that Price had retaken Springfield, and surrounded Curtis; Pike and his Indians had whipped Hunter; that the federals were repulsed with great loss at Island No. 10, and were falling back along the whole line, and that Jeff Davis was about to head 400,000 troops to invade Maryland and the northern states. These assertions were generally believed. No one has the hardihood to dispute these falsehoods.

The Judge gives much information of interest relating to Arkansas matters. Gov. Rector is bitter and wolfish. He called an extra session of the legislature, but it was some weeks before a quorum was present. In his message he recommended an act be passed, punishing with heavy fine and imprisonment who ever expressed doubt of the success of the confederate arms, and that a second offense be declared felony.

An act was passed imposing a tax of $30 per bale on cotton, thus favoring the production of grain, at the discouragement of cotton raising.

Col. Wright, of the 6th Missouri cavalry, returned to Cassville on the evening of the 9th, having made a successful expedition, with four companies of his command, thro' the south-west corner of the state. All jayhawking bands in that vicinity were dispersed. Several skirmishes took place, resulting in the death of several prominent rebels; 125 prisoners were captured, all of whom, except the leaders and some twenty-five intractable ones, were released on taking the oath of allegiance. A number of horses were captured, together with 122 head of cattle, 327 bushels of wheat, and 4,500 pounds of bacon. All rebel bands not captured were driven by Col. Wright down to Standwaity, a point on the line of the Indian territory, twenty-five miles below Neosho. It is reported that a body of rebels, 600 strong, are encamped between Cowaskain and Buffalo Creek, and Pike is at the head of 1,500 Indians, fifteen miles below.

To-Day's Report.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, April 18.

The condition of the treasury now enables the secretary to direct the payment, in cash, of claims of dates prior to November 1st, 1861, including claims settled by the St. Louis commission, and it is expected the November claims will also be paid in full, within a few days. All other claims, without regard to date, will be paid on presentation, if desired, as heretofore, 80 per cent. in cash.

The prospect of the passage of the Pacific railroad bill during the present session, is not promising.

Tribune's special.—It is said, on the authority of intercepted letters from Richmond, that several editors of rebel newspapers have been hung for publishing intelligence contraband of war.

A general order from the adjutant general's office directs paymasters to recognize agents which states may, under certain circumstances, appoint to receive soldiers' pay.

A rumor which the war department has not had opportunity to disprove or verify, asserts that Gen. Blenker has been seriously injured by a fall from his horse. It is not true that his command has been assigned to Gen. Rosecranz.

The Herald's Fort Monroe correspondent, under date of the 17th, states: From our army before Yorktown I hear the most cheering news. From information received from a soldier, I learn that last evening a colonel and lieutenant colonel from the rebel lines had surrendered themselves as prisoners of war. These two officers also report that an entire Irish brigade mutinied, and by order of Jeff. Davis were deprived of their arms and sent to the rear.

NEW YORK, April 18.

A letter from Col. Barnes, of the Massachusetts 18th, received in Boston, states that the number of the force of the enemy is not so large as has been reported, and does not now exceed 40,000 or 50,000 men. Neither are their guns of so formidable a character as has generally been reported. Col. Barnes says: Our siege guns have come, and before long they will be at work upon the rebel breastworks. Gen. McClellan, I hear, is about ready to attack the place, and when he commences the rebels will not hold out very long. Col. Barnes is considered one of the ablest officers in the service, many of the generals under whom he is serving having graduated at West Point under his instructions.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

CHICAGO, April 19.

Cairo special to Times.—Gen. Mitchell is now at Juba, Miss., having burned the bridges across the Tennessee at Decatur and Florence.

Recent intelligence from Corinth confirms previous reports concerning the magnitude of the enemy's force, reinforcements arriving for Beauregard at an unexampled rate. He has now 100,000 men, is fortifying Corinth, building entrenchments, and constructing abattis. The rebels entertain no doubt of success next time.

CAIRO, April 18.

The steamers Minnehaba and Z. G. Patton were fired into by rebels yesterday, while ascending the Tennessee river with troops. Upon the former one man was killed and one seriously wounded. The Patton was uninjured. The troops on the Minnehaba landed and burned a row of wooden buildings on the bluffs, near which the firing originated.

CHICAGO, April 19.

Special to Tribune.—Gen. Sherman moved his division, Wednesday, two miles further into the interior, after a sharp skirmish, in which the enemy was defeated, with loss of 50 to 60 killed and as many wounded.—He succeeded in maintaining his position.

FORTRESS MONROE, April 18.

The Norfolk Day Book, of yesterday, speaks of the arrival of the French minister at Washington, at Richmond. Speculations are made in relation to the obect of his visit, and says it is fraught with grave significance. The most probable solution is that a French monopoly of tobacco underlies the whole mystery. We believe we declare popular determination when we affirm that the confederate states will not tolerate any diplomacy which places them beyond the pale of public law. Let us be true to our honor and we shall at length win the acknowledgement of posterity that we deserve to be free.

The Norfolk Day Book, of to-day, mentions that in the skirmish last night Col. McKinney and 25 men were killed, and 25 wounded. There was a very extensive fire at Norfolk last night, and it has continued to burn all day to-day. Several buildings were destroyed.

WASHINGTON, April 19.

The act authorizing the postmaster general to establish branch postoffices in the cities prescribes the charge of one cent in addition to the regular postage for every letter deposited in any branch postoffice, to be forwarded by mail from the principal office, and which shall be prepaid by stamp, and one cent for every letter delivered at such branch office to be paid for on delivery.

The naval appropriation bill contains an item of nearly $80,000 to pay for and finish Stevens' battery, the money not to be expended unless the secretary of the navy is of the opinion that the same will secure an efficient steam battery, The section appropriating $13,000,000 merely says to enable the secretary to contract for iron-clad steam vessels of war.

ST. LOUIS, April 19.

Col. John S. Phelps, who performed a distinguished part in the battle of Pea Ridge, has arrived from Springfield. He is in bad health, suffering from disease contracted in the field. He will remain a few days and then proceed to Washington, and take his seat in congress.

The steamer Imperial arrived last night, bringing 440 sick and wounded, 107 being prisoners. This being the last of the wounded there. The steamer Evansville also arrived with 300 rebel prisoners from Island No. 10. The Evansville, we are informed, takes her departure this morning with the captives for Prairie du Chien.

NEW YORK, April 19.

The schooner John Roe at this port reports, March 14th, at 5 P. M., off Savannah, passed a propeller showing English colors, and after hauling them down ran up the rebel flag. She was steering in the direction of Bermuda, about northeast.

CAIRO, April 18.

Special to St. Louis Democrat.—A gentleman from Pittsburg reports the wounded all away from that point.

A skirmish took place at Savannah on Wednesday, between a detachment of our cavalry and rebel picket guards, which were posted uncomfortably near and very strong. The rebels were driven back leaving 25 killed and 65 wounded. Refugees report the rebels fortifying at Lick Creek, half way to Corinth, Some state that trains are arriving, bringing fresh troops through, while others say they are sending off stores preparatory to evacuating.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, April 19.

Flour receipts 9,345 barrels market rather more steady, shade better; sales 8,000 barrels 4,45 a 4,50, superfine western. Wheat receipts 2,254 bushels, market quiet and strong downward tendency, 1,20 in store and delivered Milwaukee club.

A FEMALE TRAITOR.—The Baltimore correspondent of the New York Evening Post says a daughter of the proprietor of the Tredegar Iron Works at Richmond was captured by our advancing forces last week, beyond Great Bethel, in the act of signaling our approach to the enemy. She braved all the consequences of her acts, and is now in Fort McHenry, paying the penalty of her feminine rashness, but is not in the least abashed by her conduct—on the contrary, she manifests all the usual symptoms of the rebel disease, which are unblushing impudence and hectoring swagger. She is a pretty girl of some eighteen or nineteen summers.

AN INDIGNANT SYMPATHIZER.—WASHINGTON, April 15.—Gen. Lee, of the rebel army, has a son here, who went to church on Sunday, but he was so disgusted by the thanksgiving for our late victories that he ostentatiously left the church. The facts were too painful for his fine sensibilities. A residence in Fort Warren would get him out of the way of any such annoyances.

The President's Message on Emancipation in the District.

The President's message on the emancipation of slavery in the District of Columbia, is as follows:

Fellow Citizens of the Senate and House of Representatives:

The act entitled an act for the release of certain persons held to service or labor in the District of Columbia has this day been approved and signed. I have never doubted the constitutional authority of congress to abolish slavery in this district, and I have ever desired to see the national capital free from the institution in some satisfactory way. Hence there has never been in my mind any question on the subject, except one of expediency arising in view of all the circumstances. If there be matters within and about this act which might have taken a course or shape more satisfactory to my judgment, I do not attempt to specify them. I am gratified that the true principles of compensation and colonization are both recognized and practically applied in this act. In the matter of compensation, it is provided that claims may be presented within 90 days of the passage of the act, but not thereafter; and there is saving for minors, femmes covert, insane or absent persons. I presume there is an omission by mere oversight, and I recommend that it be supplied by an amendatory or supplemental act. (Signed)
ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

THE FIFTH WISCONSIN.—The 5th regiment, (Col. Cobb's) seems to be skirmishing a little, as appears from a correspondent of the New York World, writing from the headquarters of Gen. Keyes, near Yorktown. The letter says:

On the 6th inst., a very successful and important reconnoisance was made by Brig. Gen. W. S. Hancock, accompanied by Lieut. Merrill, of the engineers, and Lieut. Bowen, of the topographical engineers, and the 5th Wisconsin, Col. Cobb, and the 6th Maine regiment, Col. Burnham. Your correspondent had the pleasure of being a witness. The enemy were found posted along the entire length of a stream this side of its works. The skirmishers thrown out in advance met the rebel pickets at every exposed and convenient place this side of the stream. Our men gallantly drove them up to the shore, and in several instances across. The enemy's fortifications were disclosed at all these places, guns being mounted in them, with a single exception.

In another portion of the letter we find the following:

Farther down and toward the James river, the next entrenchment the devilish genius of rebellion has devised seems to be a rifle-pit. The skirmishers of the 5th Wisconsin, under Capt. Bean, drove the enemy at this point down the bank, neck and heels, over their foot bridges, and out of sight into their works, whatever they are. Farther down, and in the same line, stronger works, bastioned forts, each mounting several guns, were developed by the 5th Wisconsin and 6th Maine skirmishers.

The enemy at these points of this splendidly conducted reconnoisance were compelled to occupy the higher ground in front of the plain towards their face. Here the enemy from the highest of the two forts threw shells at Gen. Hancock's skirmishers, commanded by Major Larrabee. This fort also commands two forts lower down. Lee's Mills was not more than 500 yards from the top of the ravine, and at this place the bugle calls, and the movements of the light artillery were heard and seen as Gen. Hancock drove the enemy's skirmishers in.

Capt. Chas. H. Jackson, whose company was raised in this place, and which forms a part of the 18th Wisconsin regiment, was detained in Milwaukee by sickness when the regiment moved to the battle field, and left that city to join his command on the day the battle at Pittsburgh Landing occurred.

His brother, Lieut. Jackson, took command of the company in the engagement. Four of the brothers are in the service, three in that regiment, and one in the third Wisconsin.

We have been kindly shown private letters, received by some of our citizens from their sons and husbands in Captain Jackson's company. From them we learn the painful intelligence that some of our brave men from Brodhead are wounded.

Messrs. Spencer, Cottle, Wilder, Wright, Show and Lieut. Jackson, are reported wounded, but the nature of their wounds is not named. The latter is now reported by the papers to have died, but we hope and trust it is a mistake. Let us hope for the best, and wait patiently further details.—Brodhead Independent.

The Richmond Whig is still boasting. "We have been often defeated by the Yankees," it says, "but never yet whipped in fair fight." We quote:

"But the case is too plain. We always believed we could whip the Yankees, and nothing has done so much to strengthen and confirm that belief as our disasters. Other things being equal, courage is a matter of habit. Temperament and training have much to do with it, but habit has more. The men of the south are accustomed to the use of arms, and to the contemplation of death by the bullet or the knife. There is no danger the Yankee will not face for the sake of the almighty dollar. It is the force of drill and the hope of getting a southern farm of 160 acres that enables him to fight now. But the justice of the southern cause, the greater natural courage of the southern man, and the lofty motives which inspire him, will surely tell in the long run. With equal equipments we can always whip the Yankees two to one. With competent direction southern fighting would extort the admiration of the world."

The Whig says: "We have it from good authority that, since the commencement of this war, the commonwealth of Virginia has furnished arms and armament sufficient to equip 90,000 men. This is exclusive of arms captured at Harper's Ferry. Virginia has done her part well, and it is time that her revilers should cease their slanderous slang."

FEMALE SECESSIONISTS OF ST. LOUIS IMPRISONED.—Monday morning, as the prisoners from Pittsburgh were passing under escort from the steamer Woodford to the McDowell College prison, a small rebel flag was displayed by a lady at the residence of Wm. Bell, on Eighth street, near the prison. Other ladies waved their handkerchiefs, and made other demonstrations of sympathy with the captives.

On being satisfied as to the facts, Provost Marshal Leighton ordered a guard placed at the house, with orders to prevent all ingress or egress by any persons whatever, making the house a prison for the confinement of its inmates. Should the stock of family supplies fail, these ladies will be served with army rations, and treated as other prisoners. The same course will be pursued, we understand, towards certain other ladies in this city, unless they exhibit a more decent regard for propriety than they have recently done.

Our citizens need not be surprised to see a guard in front of the houses of any of our leading secessionists elsewhere in the city. They who call themselves ladies, yet persist in disgraceful conduct of the kind referred to, should and will be made to feel that they also are to be held to severe account.—St. Louis Democrat, 16th.

The Monitor, Kensington, and Galena are the three iron-clad steamers contracted for by the navy department, under the act of August 1, 1861. Two of them are completed, and the Kensington is rapidly preparing at Philadelphia.

Huntsville, Alabama, now held by federal troops, is the home of L. P. Walker, late rebel secretary of war, who predicted, on the fall of Sumter, that the rebel flag would wave over Faneuil Hall. Instead, the stars and stripes float in triumph over his own town.

At Ada, near Grand Rapids, Michigan, last Sunday night, Alexander M. Johnson, hotel-keeper, was shot and instantly killed by his wife, in return for his getting beastly drunk and calling her bad names before a bar room full of people.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company
OF THE
STATE OF WISCONSIN,

Presents advantages in all respects equal, and in some superior, to those of other companies doing business in the northwest. Its rates, its plan of operations, and its basis, are identical with the best companies in this country and Europe. Its age, and consequently its accumulations, are not equal to theirs in amount, but in proportion to the age of risks, and amount at risk, they will compare favorably with the most successful.

Its assets, which have resulted solely from the accumulations of three years, amount to $86,881.20, and its annual income, from policies now in force, over $65,000.

Its assets and business are constantly increasing. Its losses have been promptly paid. Its trustees are well known, honorable business men, and are as capable of managing an institution of this kind, as men in any other portion of the United States. The experience of the company thus far proves that we can have as reliable companies in the west as any where else, if we will, and self-interest certainly indicates that we should have them, and build up home interests in every practicable way. In the above respects, this company claims equality with its co-workers, and in the following superiority: It obtains the greater portion of its business in the healthiest portion of the United States, thus having the advantage of a less per centage of loss; it receives higher rates of interest on its investments, thus making more rapid accumulations—both very important items in Life Insurance; and its expenses have been less in proportion to its business than any other new company doing business in the United States.

S. S. DAGGETT, President.
A. W. KELLOGG, Secretary.
H. G. WILSON, General Agent.

The company has a large number of lives insured in Janesville. Applications for insurance received by the agent, Willard Merrill, at his law office in Lappin's block.

The Daily Gazette.

City of Janesville.

Saturday Evening, April 18, 1862.

Official Paper of the City.

Forever float that standard sheet!
Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

Fort Pillow or Fort Wright.

The newspaper correspondents have so mixed these two forts together that they hardly know which they are talking about. Fort Pillow is situated a short distance above Memphis, and Fort Wright is above Randolph, and 69 miles below New Madrid. It is Fort Wright which Com. Foote is reported to have taken with his flotilla. It has been represented to be a stronger position than Island No. 10, having eleven batteries, besides the fort proper. Opposite the last battery obstructions were placed which compel boats to pass close to the shore. The river curves at this point very similar to the short bend at No. 10, the channel sweeping an entire half circle. It has been predicted that there would be much difficulty in capturing this fort, defended by so many guns, and by some 17,000 troops, but it appears it has quickly fallen before our gunboats, if the report of its surrender is correct.

True, Every Word.

"Keynote," the Nashville correspondent of the New York World, closes one of his letters with the following reflections upon the possible contingencies of the future:

"No pen of observation and foresight can fall upon this topic without writing warmly and nervously about it. It is the most commanding topic of the hour. None of more consequence or moment can possibly engage an American's reflection.—We have reached the conclusion that this damnable ingratitude of a rebellion will be put down. We have not reached the conclusion that it will stay down. Even Europe will concede the former. It is the latter that the London Times and the third Napoleon say no to with such sarcasm and satisfaction. And why? Because (they say) what you may have the momentary battle-frenzy to conquer, you have not the steadfast strength to keep. You whip your enemies on the field, and condole with them in their subjugation. You have the hand to put them down, but not the heart to keep them down. You have already granted them the dignity of foreign belligerents' You will swear the very arch-leader of them and let him go. You dare not put a man of them to death save in the dignified belligerent manner of battle. You will win the war, but naught else. You will obtain everything but obedience, without which nothing is obtained.

"So talks Europe and the thrones. My soul is sick with the suspicion that they judge us properly. This stupendous struggle for stability and dear life will be a failure and a sillness if it be not rounded off with the gallows. Any child may pull a nail out that is not clinched.

"An ounce of blood upon the block will do more to cement the Union than an ocean of blood on the field."

WISCONSIN TROOPS IN MCDOWELL'S CORPS.—Accounts just received from the 2d, 6th and 7th regiments, composing, with the 19th Indiana, Cutler's brigade, in King's division, state that they marched, April 4th, from Fairfax Seminary to the outer line of the department of the Rappahannock, and were, April 10th, six miles beyond Manassas Junction, enjoying horrible weather and terrible roads, expecting to move forward whenever the proper time should be supposed to have come.

WOUNDED SOLDIERS.—The following Wisconsin soldiers, wounded, arrived at Cairo on the 17th, by the steamer J. H. Roe:

GEN. SIGEL.—We are gratified to learn that Gen. Sigel's condition is improving, and that he may be expected out in a few days.

Special dispatch to the Chicago Evening Journal.

ST. LOUIS, April 18.

Officers arriving here from Pittsburgh Landing this evening report all quiet there, but active preparations are making for another battle, which was generally thought be imminent. It was supposed that the enemy were preparing to make a second dashing attack upon the federal forces, as a large portion of his army was between Corinth and Pittsburgh, and only a few miles distant from our outposts. So close, indeed, were the two hostile posts that skirmishing and picket fighting were continually going on.

My informant thinks that a second great battle cannot be far off, and that it will take place either on the field of the first engagement, or about midway between Pittsburgh Landing and Corinth. G. N.

COTTON CULTURE IN ILLINOIS.—WASHINGTON, April 15.—A western farmer is in town after cotton seed, who planted 13 acres to cotton in Illinois last season, and the produce was 13 bales, which he sold for $80 per bale. He says one of his neighbors will plant 2,000 acres this spring, and he will go heavily into the business himself.

A Fearful Retribution Due---Change of War Policy Demanded.

Correspondence of the Chicago Evening Journal.

CAIRO, Wednesday evening, April 16.

The opinion appears to be gaining ground in army circles that we have played kid glove war long enough. Wounded soldiers returning home make no complaints against officers, nor of the controlling policy. They feel that they have done their duty, and will rest a while and recruit health and strength, enjoying the consciousness of having done the best they could. But their friends, who seek them in anxious grief, give freer license to their speech. Denunciation from non-military men often falls unheeded—for it may be undeserved. But when questions of common humanity come up they not only have a right to speak, but have a right to be heard.

That want of caution and of definite plans which cut off our fellow citizens and sends grief through every neighborhood deserves not only the severest reprobation; but the people, the civilians, have a right to sit in judgment now. There is a fearful retribution coming for some men. Who they may be, the development of events will show. But, severe as the ordeal of justice may be, it cannot bring back again the departed, whose valor invited death.

I can but observe the change of feeling in men who have visited the battle field. When they were at home their humane sentiments prompted them to advocate the kindest treatment and the greatest ease to conquered rebels. After they have witnessed the results of battles they look at the scene through new eyes. A burst of illumination comes in upon them and they are not the men they were before. They say, enough of parley and pity—let rebels receive a rebel's doom.

We are not fighting men who honor us as equals. Subdued and in prison they despise us. Beaten, they are but whipped puppies who fawn at our feet for a while. They profess change of sentiment, and want to go to their homes, and agree to return to the quiet walks of life. On these fair protestations we administer the oath of allegiance with great magnanimity. They take it as a sick patient a loathsome potion, and speedily abjure the oath as the sickened stomach ejects the hated dose.

Hundreds have been released here as elsewhere, on taking the oath of allegiance, who turned around and spat upon the men who had dealt thus graciously with them.

There is no use in parleying with secession longer. Its viper fangs will poison as long as they have power to strike. The iron heel of loyalty must be set upon its head. There is no killing it by kindness, nor reforming it by love. It will bite and sting, and with venom to the tip of its tail, so long as the sun of rebellion shines. If, according to Parson Brownlow, rebellion is "Hell born," what impropriety is there in sending the children back to their father? Have we not played "puss in mittens" long enough? What can we gain by this kid-gloved warfare? War is terrible—revolting in every Christian sense. Since it exists let the means of warfare be used to put down rebellion. And, above all, let rebels feel that there is a mighty power in loyalty that will not be tampered with.

These are but a reflection of the sentiments of private citizens returning from the battle-field.

Our country never knew rebellion before, except that natal throe which gave it existence. It has not yet learned to treat with rebellion as it deserves. It has not yet, in its conduct towards rebels, manifested that discrimination which characterizes good business men. Their day is yet to come. May it come speedily and with the demonstration of power. THURSTON.

EMANCIPATION IN WASHINGTON.

A Holiday--Kidnappers at Work--Another Red-Tape Disaster.

[Correspondence of the N. Y. Tribune.]

WASHINGTON, April 13.

Let the friends of justice and national honor breathe freer now, for the act giving liberty to 3,000 slaves has received congressional sanction. Yet, let them not be entirely joyful, for much of its saving power is gone, on account of the executive seal being so long withheld. For this be the senate responsible, in whose hands the bill still lingers.

To-day has been a holiday, vocal with praises and hallelujahs from the bond who look towards to-morrow with hope; yet has it been also a sad day, full of tears and aching hearts, and terrible partings forever, because the indolent senate—may I not say recreant senate?—did not hold a session yesterday, and finish the good work they began, by sending the law to the president, and asking him to give it life on the anniversary of Sumter, and so the half born blessing, which might have sprung defiantly to its feet, and carried balm to a thousand hearts and homes, is nothing but dead parchment on the senatorial table. Its voice should have rang through this capital like a trumpet-blast yesterday; but I suppose the clerk's dainty fingers tucked the charter under the pink tape girth on Friday night, as composedly as if human hopes and human lives were not bound up in it.

For, it must be understood, during the three days and nights that elapse before it can be approved and proclaimed, the red-handed kidnappers are driving their business with energy. The number to whom the boon of freedom will finally come is diminishing every hour. The hirelings of slavery are seeking assiduously for the wretched beings whom liberty is so near, in parlors and kitchens and garrets, in hotels and streets, in alleys and by-places where they flee for refuge, and are dragging them thence, and carrying them into Maryland. Much of the infernal work is done in the night, and so energetically is the work prosecuted that nearly all the slaves who will bring more than the stipulation in the bill ($300) will be taken away before it becomes a law. The slave power, though weakened and hampered by the war, seems to have lost none of its financial sagacity; it will make, once more, the same "good bargain" that has always distinguished its transactions, and will cheat the government as usual. The slaves who will remain to be freed on Tuesday, judging from their present unwilling exodus, would not bring an average of $200, if sold at the auction block in Maryland. Yet is the bargain a good one, though the shambles' value is against us, for no gold can be an equivalent for freedom, and national self respect is forever without price.

In anticipation of the liberty day that seems so near them, the slaves all over the city, and the free negroes, who are connected with them by the ties of kindred and sympathy, are dressed in their best to-day (many of them in their seedy best, to be sure), and are assembled to celebrate this Sabbath as a day of praise and thanksgiving. I have talked with several "candidates" this evening, from whom I gather that this "Thanksgiving Day" has been kept joyously in nearly all of their seventeen churches. There seems to have been a preconcert among them, and the afternoon was devoted to love-feasts.

THE STRAITS OPEN.—A dispatch from Milwaukee, received by parties here, this morning, gives the cheering announcement that the straits of Mackinac are open, and that several propellers have arrived at Milwaukee.

This will be glad tidings to our vessel men, forwarders, merchants, and to the west generally. The era of trade and commerce opens here in earnest with the opening of navigation.—Chicago Journal 18th.

Last Night's Report.

BALTIMORE, April 18.

At intervals last night and this morning heavy cannonading could be heard in the direction of Yorktown. A party of deserters who came into our lines report the arrival of Jeff. Davis in the rebel camp, and that it was understood he would take command in the approaching battle. They represent the enemy to be in great force, and the work of entrenching to be progressing throughout the peninsula. Reinforcements were constantly arriving from Norfolk, Fredericksburg, and even North Carolina, and the rebel generals openly declared their intention to make this the great battle of the war, and the strongest conviction is expressed of triumph over the federal forces, and driving them from the peninsula. There is almost constant skirmishing going on by the riflemen, and occasionally shot and shell are thrown with great rapidity.

There was quite a heavy skirmish this morning, beyond Warwick Court House, on the James river. The enemy attempted to turn our left flank. The attack was made in quite heavy force, but the enemy were repulsed, after a brisk artillery duel. The loss of the enemy is thought to have been quite heavy. We lost about a dozen in killed and wounded.

PHILADELPHIA, April 18.

Parson Brownlow was received at Independence Hall by the city authorities, this morning, Mr. Tregg, president of the common council, received him with words of the heartiest welcome. Parson Brownlow replied in a characteristic address of some length.

WASHINGTON, April 18.

The following was received at the war department, to-day, from Gen. Hunter, commanding in South Carolina:

PORT ROYAL, S. C., April 15.
via Sandy Hook, 18th.

We opened our batteries on Fort Pulaski, on the morning of the 10th inst. After thirty hours' continuous firing, a practicable breach was made, and preparations for storming were about to commence, when the rebel flag was struck, We have captured 47 guns, 7,000 shot and shells, 40,000 pounds of powder, 360 prisoners with their small arms and accoutrements, and a good supply of provisions. One of our men was killed—none wounded.

The following dispatches were received, to-day, at the war department from Gen. McClellan:

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, April 18th, 1861.

At about half an hour after midnight, the enemy attacked Smith's position, and attempted to carry his guns. Smith repulsed them handsomely, and took some prisoners. I have no details, but will forward them as soon as my aids return. The firing was very heavy. All is now quiet.

Second Dispatch.—My position, occupied yesterday by Smith, was entrenched last night, so that we have been able to prevent the enemy from working to-day, and have kept his guns silent. The same result at the batteries at Hyatt's Mills.

Dispatches to the War Department.—Yorktown was shelled by our gunboats and four barges, but without effect. There has been a good deal of firing from the Yorktown land batteries.

CHICAGO, April 18.

The Evening Journal says: We learn from private sources, this morning, that Fort Wright was attacked by Com. Foote's flotilla on Monday, and has been captured. We presume our information is correct, as it comes from one at Cairo who knows about everything going on.

FORSYTH, MO., April 13.

Correspondence of the Missouri Democrat.—Judge Murphy, and Dr. Johnson, of Huntsville, Arkansas, arrived at Gen. Curtis' headquarters, having been obliged to fly from their homes, since the battle of Pea Ridge, by threats made against them by a band of Texan Rangers, stationed at Osark. Murphy was in the Arkansas seceding convention whose vote was cast against the secession of the state. At Huntsville, Union men are depressed with gloom, not being aware of the recent victories, no mails having been received since Price's flight from Springfield. It was proclaimed by the rebels that Price had retaken Springfield, and surrounded Curtis; Pike and his Indians had whipped Hunter; that the federals were repulsed with great loss at Island No. 10, and were falling back along the whole line, and that Jeff Davis was about to head 400,000 troops to invade Maryland and the northern states. These assertions were generally believed. No one has the hardihood to dispute these falsehoods.

The Judge gives much information of interest relating to Arkansas matters. Gov. Rector is bitter and wolfish. He called an extra session of the legislature, but it was some weeks before a quorum was present. In his message he recommended an act be passed, punishing with heavy fine and imprisonment who ever expressed doubt of the success of the confederate arms, and that a second offense be declared felony.

An act was passed imposing a tax of $30 per bale on cotton, thus favoring the production of grain, at the discouragement of cotton raising.

Col. Wright, of the 6th Missouri cavalry, returned to Cassville on the evening of the 9th, having made a successful expedition, with four companies of his command, thro' the south-west corner of the state. All jayhawking bands in that vicinity were dispersed. Several skirmishes took place, resulting in the death of several prominent rebels; 125 prisoners were captured, all of whom, except the leaders and some twenty-five intractable ones, were released on taking the oath of allegiance. A number of horses were captured, together with 122 head of cattle, 327 bushels of wheat, and 4,500 pounds of bacon. All rebel bands not captured were driven by Col. Wright down to Standwaity, a point on the line of the Indian territory, twenty-five miles below Neosho. It is reported that a body of rebels, 600 strong, are encamped between Cowaskain and Buffalo Creek, and Pike is at the head of 1,500 Indians, fifteen miles below.

To-Day's Report.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, April 18.

The condition of the treasury now enables the secretary to direct the payment, in cash, of claims of dates prior to November 1st, 1861, including claims settled by the St. Louis commission, and it is expected the November claims will also be paid in full, within a few days. All other claims, without regard to date, will be paid on presentation, if desired, as heretofore, 80 per cent. in cash.

The prospect of the passage of the Pacific railroad bill during the present session, is not promising.

Tribune's special.—It is said, on the authority of intercepted letters from Richmond, that several editors of rebel newspapers have been hung for publishing intelligence contraband of war.

A general order from the adjutant general's office directs paymasters to recognize agents which states may, under certain circumstances, appoint to receive soldiers' pay.

A rumor which the war department has not had opportunity to disprove or verify, asserts that Gen. Blenker has been seriously injured by a fall from his horse. It is not true that his command has been assigned to Gen. Rosecranz.

The Herald's Fort Monroe correspondent, under date of the 17th, states: From our army before Yorktown I hear the most cheering news. From information received from a soldier, I learn that last evening a colonel and lieutenant colonel from the rebel lines had surrendered themselves as prisoners of war. These two officers also report that an entire Irish brigade mutinied, and by order of Jeff. Davis were deprived of their arms and sent to the rear.

NEW YORK, April 18.

A letter from Col. Barnes, of the Massachusetts 18th, received in Boston, states that the number of the force of the enemy is not so large as has been reported, and does not now exceed 40,000 or 50,000 men. Neither are their guns of so formidable a character as has generally been reported. Col. Barnes says: Our siege guns have come, and before long they will be at work upon the rebel breastworks. Gen. McClellan, I hear, is about ready to attack the place, and when he commences the rebels will not hold out very long. Col. Barnes is considered one of the ablest officers in the service, many of the generals under whom he is serving having graduated at West Point under his instructions.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

CHICAGO, April 19.

Cairo special to Times.—Gen. Mitchell is now at Juba, Miss., having burned the bridges across the Tennessee at Decatur and Florence.

Recent intelligence from Corinth confirms previous reports concerning the magnitude of the enemy's force, reinforcements arriving for Beauregard at an unexampled rate. He has now 100,000 men, is fortifying Corinth, building entrenchments, and constructing abattis. The rebels entertain no doubt of success next time.

CAIRO, April 18.

The steamers Minnehaba and Z. G. Patton were fired into by rebels yesterday, while ascending the Tennessee river with troops. Upon the former one man was killed and one seriously wounded. The Patton was uninjured. The troops on the Minnehaba landed and burned a row of wooden buildings on the bluffs, near which the firing originated.

CHICAGO, April 19.

Special to Tribune.—Gen. Sherman moved his division, Wednesday, two miles further into the interior, after a sharp skirmish, in which the enemy was defeated, with loss of 50 to 60 killed and as many wounded.—He succeeded in maintaining his position.

FORTRESS MONROE, April 18.

The Norfolk Day Book, of yesterday, speaks of the arrival of the French minister at Washington, at Richmond. Speculations are made in relation to the obect of his visit, and says it is fraught with grave significance. The most probable solution is that a French monopoly of tobacco underlies the whole mystery. We believe we declare popular determination when we affirm that the confederate states will not tolerate any diplomacy which places them beyond the pale of public law. Let us be true to our honor and we shall at length win the acknowledgement of posterity that we deserve to be free.

The Norfolk Day Book, of to-day, mentions that in the skirmish last night Col. McKinney and 25 men were killed, and 25 wounded. There was a very extensive fire at Norfolk last night, and it has continued to burn all day to-day. Several buildings were destroyed.

WASHINGTON, April 19.

The act authorizing the postmaster general to establish branch postoffices in the cities prescribes the charge of one cent in addition to the regular postage for every letter deposited in any branch postoffice, to be forwarded by mail from the principal office, and which shall be prepaid by stamp, and one cent for every letter delivered at such branch office to be paid for on delivery.

The naval appropriation bill contains an item of nearly $80,000 to pay for and finish Stevens' battery, the money not to be expended unless the secretary of the navy is of the opinion that the same will secure an efficient steam battery, The section appropriating $13,000,000 merely says to enable the secretary to contract for iron-clad steam vessels of war.

ST. LOUIS, April 19.

Col. John S. Phelps, who performed a distinguished part in the battle of Pea Ridge, has arrived from Springfield. He is in bad health, suffering from disease contracted in the field. He will remain a few days and then proceed to Washington, and take his seat in congress.

The steamer Imperial arrived last night, bringing 440 sick and wounded, 107 being prisoners, This being the last of the wounded there. The steamer Evansville also arrived with 360 rebel prisoners from Island No. 10. The Evansville, we are informed, takes her departure this morning with the captives for Prairie du Chien.

NEW YORK, April 19.

The schooner John Roe at this port reports, March 14th, at 5 P. M., off Savannah, passed a propeller showing English colors, and after hauling them down ran up the rebel flag. She was steering in the direction of Bermuda, about northeast.

CAIRO, April 18.

Special to St. Louis Democrat.—A gentleman from Pittsburg reports the wounded all away from that point.

A skirmish took place at Savannah on Wednesday, between a detachment of our cavalry and rebel picket guards, which were posted uncomfortably near and very strong. The rebels were driven back leaving 25 killed and 65 wounded. Refugees report the rebels fortifying at Lick Creek, half way to Corinth. Some state that trains are arriving, bringing fresh troops through, while others say they are sending off stores preparatory to evacuating.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, April 19.

Flour receipts 9,345 barrels market rather more steady, shade better; sales 8,000 barrels 4,45 a 4,50, superfine western. Wheat receipts 2,254 bushels, market quiet and strong downward tendency, 1,20 in store and delivered Milwaukee club.

A FEMALE TRAITOR.—The Baltimore correspondent of the New York Evening Post says a daughter of the proprietor of the Tredegar Iron Works at Richmond was captured by our advancing forces last week, beyond Great Bethel, in the act of signaling our approach to the enemy. She braved all the consequences of her acts, and is now in Fort McHenry, paying the penalty of her feminine rashness, but is not in the least abashed by her conduct—on the contrary, she manifests all the usual symptoms of the rebel disease, which are unblushing impudence and hectoring swagger. She is a pretty girl of some eighteen or nineteen summers.

AN INDIGNANT SYMPATHIZER.—WASHINGTON, April 15.—Gen. Lee, of the rebel army, has a son here, who went to church on Sunday, but he was so disgusted by the thanksgiving for our late victories that he ostentatiously left the church. The facts were too painful for his fine sensibilities. A residence in Fort Warren would get him out of the way of any such annoyances.

The President's Message on Emancipation in the District.

The President's message on the emancipation of slavery in the District of Columbia, is as follows:

Fellow Citizens of the Senate and House of Representatives:

The act entitled an act for the release of certain persons held to service or labor in the District of Columbia has this day been approved and signed. I have never doubted the constitutional authority of congress to abolish slavery in this district, and I have ever desired to see the national capital free from the institution in some satisfactory way. Hence there has never been in my mind any question on the subject, except one of expediency arising in view of all the circumstances. If there be matters within and about this act which might have taken a course or shape more satisfactory to my judgment, I do not attempt to specify them. I am gratified that the true principles of compensation and colonization are both recognized and practically applied in this act. In the matter of compensation, it is provided that claims may be presented within 90 days of the passage of the act, but not thereafter; and there is saving for minors, femmes covert, insane or absent persons. I presume there is an omission by mere oversight, and I recommend that it be supplied by an amendatory or supplemental act. (Signed)

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

THE FIFTH WISCONSIN.—The 5th regiment, (Col. Cobb's) seems to be skirmishing a little, as appears from a correspondent of the New York World, writing from the headquarters of Gen. Keyes, near Yorktown. The letter says:

On the 6th inst., a very successful and important reconnoisance was made by Brig. Gen. W. S. Hancock, accompanied by Lieut. Merrill, of the engineers, and Lieut. Bowen, of the topographical enginers, and the 5th Wisconsin, Col. Cobb, and the 6th Maine regiment, Col. Burnham. Your correspondent had the pleasure of being a witness. The enemy were found posted along the entire length of a stream this side of its works. The skirmishers thrown out in advance met the rebel pickets at every exposed and convenient place this side of the stream. Our men gallantly drove them up to the shore, and in several instances across. The enemy's fortifications were disclosed at all these places, guns being mounted in them, with a single exception.

In another portion of the letter we find the following:

Farther down and toward the James river, the next entrenchment the devilish genius of rebellion has devised seems to be a rifle-pit. The skirmishers of the 5th Wisconsin, under Capt. Bean, drove the enemy at this point down the bank, neck and heels, over their foot bridges, and out of sight into their works, whatever they are. Farther down, and in the same line, stronger works, bastioned forts, each mounting several guns, were developed by the 5th Wisconsin and 6th Maine skirmishers.

The enemy at these points of this splendidly conducted reconnoisance were compelled to occupy the higher ground in front of the plain towards their face. Here the enemy from the highest of the two forts threw shells at Gen. Hancock's skirmishers, commanded by Major Larrabee. This fort also commands two forts lower down. Lee's Mills was not more than 500 yards from the top of the ravine, and at this place the bugle calls, and the movements of the light artillery were heard and seen as Gen. Hancock drove the enemy's skirmishers in.

Capt. Chas. H. Jackson, whose company was raised in this place, and which forms a part of the 18th Wisconsin regiment, was detained in Milwaukee by sickness when the regiment moved to the battle field, and left that city to join his command on the day the battle at Pittsburgh Landing occurred.

His brother, Lieut. Jackson, took command of the company in the engagement. Four of the brothers are in the service, three in that regiment, and one in the third Wisconsin.

We have been kindly shown private letters, received by some of our citizens from their sons and husbands in Captain Jackson's company. From them we learn the painful intelligence that some of our brave men from Brodhead are wounded.

Messrs. Spencer, Cottle, Wilder, Wright, Show and Lieut. Jackson, are reported wounded, but the nature of their wounds is not named. The latter is now reported by the papers to have died, but we hope and trust it is a mistake. Let us hope for the best, and wait patiently further details.—Brodhead Independent.

The Richmond Whig is still boasting. "We have been often defeated by the Yankees," it says, "but never yet whipped in fair fight." We quote:

"But the case is too plain. We always believed we could whip the Yankees, and nothing has done so much to strengthen and confirm that belief as our disasters. Other things being equal, courage is a matter of habit. Temperament and training have much to do with it, but habit has more. The men of the south are accustomed to the use of arms, and to the contemplation of death by the bullet or the knife. There is no danger the Yankee will not face for the sake of the almighty dollar. It is the force of drill and the hope of getting a southern farm of 160 acres that enables him to fight now. But the justice of the southern cause, the greater natural courage of the southern man, and the lofty motives which inspire him, will surely tell in the long run. With equal equipments we can always whip the Yankees two to one. With competent direction southern fighting would extort the admiration of the world."

The Whig says: "We have it from good authority that, since the commencement of this war, the commonwealth of Virginia has furnished arms and armament sufficient to equip 90,000 men. This is exclusive of arms captured at Harper's Ferry. Virginia has done her part well, and it is time that her revilers should cease their slanderous slang."

FEMALE SECESSIONISTS OF ST. LOUIS IMPRISONED.—Monday morning, as the prisoners from Pittsburgh were passing under escort from the steamer "Woodford to the McDowell College prison, a small rebel flag was displayed by a lady at the residence of Wm. Bell, on Eighth street, near the prison. Other ladies waved their handkerchiefs, and made other demonstrations of sympathy with the captives.

On being satisfied as to the facts, Provost Marshal Leighton ordered a guard placed at the house, with orders to prevent all ingress or egress by any persons whatever, making the house a prison for the confinement of its inmates. Should the stock of family supplies fail, these ladies will be served with army rations, and treated as other prisoners. The same course will be pursued, we understand, towards certain other ladies in this city, unless they exhibit a more decent regard for propriety than they have recently done.

Our citizens need not be surprised to see a guard in front of the houses of any of our leading secessionists elsewhere in the city. They who call themselves ladies, yet persist in disgraceful conduct of the kind referred to, should and will be made to feel that they also are to be held to severe account.—St. Louis Democrat, 16th.

The Monitor, Kensington, and Galena are the three iron-clad steamers contracted for by the navy department, under the act of August 1, 1861. Two of them are completed, and the Kensington is rapidly preparing at Philadelphia.

Huntsville, Alabama, now held by federal troops, is the home of L. P. Walker, late rebel secretary of war, who predicted, on the fall of Sumter, that the rebel flag would wave over Faneuil Hall. Instead, the stars and stripes float in triumph over his own town.

At Ada, near Grand Rapids, Michigan, last Sunday night, Alexander M. Johnson, hotel-keeper, was shot and instantly killed by his wife, in return for his getting beastly drunk and calling her bad names before a bar room full of people.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company
OF THE
STATE OF WISCONSIN,

Presents advantages in all respects equal, and in some superior, to those of other companies doing business in the northwest. Its rates, its plan of operations, and its basis, are identical with the best companies in this country and Europe. Its age, and consequently its accumulations, are not equal to theirs in amount, but in proportion to the age of risks, and amount at risk, they will compare favorably with the most successful.

Its assets, which have resulted solely from the accumulations of three years, amount to $86,881.20, and its annual income, from policies now in force, over $65,000.

Its assets and business are constantly increasing. Its losses have been promptly paid. Its trustees are well known, honorable business men, and are as capable of managing an institution of this kind, as men in any other portion of the United States. The experience of the company thus far proves that we can have as reliable companies in the west as any where else, if we will, and self-interest certainly indicates that we should have them, and build up home interests in every practicable way. In the above respects, this company claims equality with its co-workers, and in the following superiority: It obtains the greater portion of its business in the healthiest portion of the United States, thus having the advantage of a less per centage of loss; it receives higher rates of interest on its investments, thus making more rapid accumulations—both very important items in Life Insurance; and its expenses have been less in proportion to its business than any other new company doing business in the United States.

S. S. DAGGETT, President.
A. W. KELLOGG, Secretary.
H. G. WILSON, General Agent.

The company has a large number of lives insured in Janesville. Applications for insurance received by the agent, Willard Merrill, at his law office in Lappin's block.

We have a new carrier in the 3d and a part of the 2d ward. If any of our subscribers are missed, they will please report at the office.

An Interesting Subject.

A Union meeting of the friends of homeless and neglected children, will be held in the Congregational church, next Sabbath, at three o'clock P. M. Rev. R. G. Toles will address the meeting and present some interesting facts connected with his work among the children of the streets of New York city.

Mr. Toles will also speak upon the same subject in the Baptist church in the evening, at the usual hour of service. All are invited to attend.

Mr. Toles has three boys, about 14 years old, for whom he wishes homes in some farmer's family. He will remain here two or three days, and may be consulted at the Hyatt House.

SOLDIERS' ALLOTMENTS.—The following additional allotments (omitted in the last statement) from the 3d Wisconsin cavalry, Col. W. A. Barstow, have been handed to us by Mr. Fraser, allotment commissioner:

Field and staff, 15 officers, per month, $937.66.

Company B, Capt. Alexander F. David. —1 non-commissioned officer, and 16 privates, per month, $166.00.

Average of company B, per man, $9.76 per month.

Total of above, per annum, $13,243.92; which, added to the other companies from Col. Barstow's regiment, gives per man per month, an average of $12.91, or an aggregate of $54,697.92 per annum.

Total from the 8th and 9th batteries of artillery, 3d cavalry, and 17th infantry, $109,171.92 per annum.

We learn that Mr. Fraser will leave this city Monday morning at 8 o'clock for Kansas, to take the allotments for the 12th and 13th regiments. We hope our Rock county volunteers will respond liberally to the claims of those who are in a great measure looking to them for the means of support while they are absent from home. Mr. Fraser will take charge of any message, if reduced to writing, to any member of either regiment, which may be left with Mr. Beetle, at the telegraph office, prior to the departure of the train Monday morning.

THE RIVER AND STRAITS OPEN.—The strait at Mackinac and Lake Pepin are open, and both are now ready for navigation.

REBEL PRISONERS COMING.—The train with the rebel prisoners will leave Chicago at about 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, and probably arrive here at about two o'clock P. M.

☞ On last Saturday papers were served on the mayor, summoning the city of Racine to appear before the United States circuit court in Milwaukee, to answer in a suit commenced by Mr. Luling for seventy thousand dollars! The city council on Monday night instructed the city attorney to attend to it. The claim is probably for the coupons on the city bonds.

NAVIGATION OPEN TO ST. PAUL.—A dispatch was received this morning from St. Paul, at the Chicago and Northwestern railroad office, announcing that the Mississippi river is now open to that city, and that there is no further obstruction to navigation, and that steamers will immediately commence their regular trips up and down the river.

It is a remarkable coincidence that we are able to announce on the same day the re opening of navigation to St. Paul and to Buffalo.—Chicago Journal, 18th.

HOW TO PREPARE CONCENTRATED CHICKEN FOR SOLDIERS.—The following recipe for preparing concentrated chicken, &c., for the benefit of those desirous of putting up this article for our sick soldiers: Prepare the chicken for stewing, put into cold water just enough to keep from burning, and boil gently until the flesh can be stripped from the bones; to the flesh add some water and salt, but no butter, and let it simmer slowly for a long time, or until reduced as possible; seal it up in cans. Mutton, beef and veal can be put up in the same way.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.

GENERAL HOSPITAL, MOUND CITY, Ill., April 15th, 1862.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Dr. Simons, medical director of the western department, has gone up the river, and during his absence our surgeon-in-chief, Dr. Franklin, is acting medical director. This necessitates his absence from the hospital most of the day. The public, however, need have no anxiety on this account, as Dr. Dunning, senior house surgeon, will have charge during Dr. Franklin's absence. Dr. Dunning is fully adequate to the duties assigned him by Dr. F., has been at this post from the beginning, is a capital surgeon, and has fine executive ability and appreciates Dr. F.'s ideas of the management of a hospital. The stores left by Gov. Harvey were truly valuable, and were thankfully received. Indeed, not a little enthusiasm was manifested as package after package was removed; and I confess to a little pride in saying they came from our city. May I venture to ask our kind ladies still to remember us. Send us of your abundance. We have never yet had half as many slippers and dressing gowns as are needed. Bear in mind that the soldiers coat is heavy and uncomfortable to the weak convalescent.

The Ohio is again on the rise, and threatens to be troublesome in this locality.

APRIL 16TH.—The following is a list of the Wisconsin men who arrived at this hospital on the Hiawatha, of whose arrival I advised you in my last. It has been impossible for me to give it to you sooner.

EIGHTEENTH REGIMENT.—Fred. Wuerstlein, who was with this regiment, in the great battle, on Sunday the 6th inst., returned yesterday.

He was with the lamented Col. ALBAN, until his death, on Wednesday morning. The Colonel was shot about two hours after the battle commenced, at the head of his regiment; the ball entering near the right shoulder-blade, and passing out in the front of the neck.

He bore his sufferings with composure and fortitude, saying he was no better than a mere private. Lieut. Colonel Beall was wounded, at a later period, by a ball which entered his right thigh, and was afterwards extracted. His injuries are supposed not to be mortal. Both he and Col. Alban, near evening on Sunday, were placed side by side on the same boat, at Pittsburgh Landing, and were conveyed to Savannah, after a couple of days, where Col. A. died and was buried.

Fred. did not see Major Crain when he fell; but saw his body, and asserts that it was pierced by more than a dozen wounds; showing that the barbarians must have shot and stabbed him after he fell. He was buried near Col. A., at Savannah.

The 18th regiment was aroused by the attack before they had breakfasted, and were immediately formed into line, in front of the camp, and there fought with desperation, until the greater part were killed, wounded or taken prisoners. He represents the slaughter as terrible.

Fred. himself has a cut through the coat, on the right shoulder, from a blow aimed at his head. He was afterwards knocked down by a rebel, with the butt of his musket, and was carried from the field, and he is still scarcely able to walk. He represents Lieut. Coleman, the acting adjutant of the 18th, as badly wounded by a ball which struck and lodged in his right cheek. His face is dreadfully black and swollen.

The 18th regiment reached the camp ground at 10 o'clock, on Saturday evening, tired and exhausted, and laid down to sleep, without anything to eat, only to wake up in the jaws of death.—Wisconsin.

MONEY TO LOAN

40wtf J. H. F[?]IGART, Hyatt House.

DR. J. BOVEE DODS' IMPERIAL WINE BITTERS,

ARE made from a pure and unadulterated Wine, which is about double the usual strength of other Wines, and is imported by only one house in the United States. Also, from the following valuable Roots, Herbs, &c., viz: Solomon's Seal, Spikenard, Camomile Flowers, Gentian, Wild Cherry Tree Bark, and Bayberry.

WE CHALLENGE

THEIR EQUAL!

We do not profess to have discovered some Roots "known only to the Indians of South America," and a cure for "all diseases which flesh is heir to," but we claim to present to the public a truly valuable preparation, which every intelligent Physician in the country will approve of and recommend. As a remedy for

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Weak Lungs, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Nervous System, Paralysis, Piles, Diseases peculiar to Females, Debility, and all cases requiring a Tonic, they are

UNSURPASSED!

For Sore Throat, so common among the Clergy, they are truly valuable.

For the aged and infirm, or for persons of a weak constitution—for Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, and all public speakers—for Book-Keepers, Tailors, Seamstresses, Students, Artists, and all persons leading a sedentary life, they will prove truly beneficial.

As a Beverage, they are wholesome, innocent, and delicious to the taste. They produce all the exhilarating effects of Brandy or Wine, without intoxicating; and are a valuable remedy for persons addicted to excessive use of strong drink, and wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free from the poison contained in the adulterated Wines and Liquors with which the country is flooded.

These Bitters not only CURE, but PREVENT Disease, and should be used by all who live in a country where the water is bad, or where Chills and Fevers are prevalent. Being entirely innocent and harmless, they may be given freely to Children and Infants with impunity.

Physicians, Clergymen and temperance advocates, as an act of humanity, should assist in spreading these truly valuable BITTERS over the land, and thereby essentially aid in banishing Drunkenness and Disease.

We have a new carrier in the 3d and a part of the 2d ward. If any of our subscribers are missed, they will please report at the office.

An Interesting Subject.

A Union meeting of the friends of homeless and neglected children, will be held in the Congregational church, next Sabbath, at three o'clock P. M. Rev. R. G. Toles will address the meeting and present some interesting facts connected with his work among the children of the streets of New York city.

Mr. Toles will also speak upon the same subject in the Baptist church in the evening, at the usual hour of service. All are invited to attend.

Mr. Toles has three boys, about 14 years old, for whom he wishes homes in some farmer's family. He will remain here two or three days, and may be consulted at the Hyatt House.

SOLDIERS' ALLOTMENTS.—The following additional allotments (omitted in the last statement) from the 3d Wisconsin cavalry, Col. W. A. Barstow, have been handed to us by Mr. Fraser, allotment commissioner:

Field and staff, 15 officers, per month, $937.66.

Company B, Capt. Alexander F. David. —1 non-commissioned officer, and 16 privates, per month, $166.00.

Average of company B, per man, $9.76 per month.

Total of above, per annum, $13,243.92; which, added to the other companies from Col. Barstow's regiment, gives per man per month, an average of $12.91, or an aggregate of $54,697.92 per annum.

Total from the 8th and 9th batteries of artillery, 3d cavalry, and 17th infantry, $109,171.92 per annum.

We learn that Mr. Fraser will leave this city Monday morning at 8 o'clock for Kansas, to take the allotments for the 12th and 13th regiments. We hope our Rock county volunteers will respond liberally to the claims of those who are in a great measure looking to them for the means of support while they are absent from home. Mr. Fraser will take charge of any message, if reduced to writing, to any member of either regiment, which may be left with Mr. Beedle, at the telegraph office, prior to the departure of the train Monday morning.

THE RIVER AND STRAITS OPEN.—The strait at Mackinac and Lake Pepin are open, and both are now ready for navigation.

REBEL PRISONERS COMING. — The train with the rebel prisoners will leave Chicago at about 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, and probably arrive here at about two o'clock P. M.

NAVIGATION OPEN TO ST. PAUL.—A dispatch was received this morning from St. Paul, at the Chicago and Northwestern railroad office, announcing that the Mississippi river is now open to that city, and that there is no further obstruction to navigation, and that steamers will immediately commence their regular trips up and down the river.

It is a remarkable coincidence that we are able to announce on the same day the re opening of navigation to St. Paul and to Buffalo.—Chicago Journal, 18th.

HOW TO PREPARE CONCENTRATED CHICKEN FOR SOLDIERS.—The following recipe for preparing concentrated chicken, &c., for the benefit of those desirous of putting up this article for our sick soldiers: Prepare the chicken for stewing, put into cold water just enough to keep from burning, and boil gently until the flesh can be stripped from the bones; to the flesh add some water and salt, but no butter, and let it simmer slowly for a long time, or until reduced as possible; seal it up in cans. Mutton, beef and veal can be put up in the same way.

Correspondence of the Daily Gazette.

GENERAL HOSPITAL,
MOUND CITY, Ill., April 15th, 1862.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Dr. Simons, medical director of the western department, has gone up the river, and during his absence our surgeon-in-chief, Dr. Franklin, is acting medical director. This necessitates his absence from the hospital most of the day. The public, however, need have no anxiety on this account, as Dr. Dunning, senior house surgeon, will have charge during Dr. Franklin's absence. Dr. Dunning is fully adequate to the duties assigned him by Dr. F., has been at this post from the beginning, is a capital surgeon, and has fine executive ability and appreciates Dr. F.'s ideas of the management of a hospital. The stores left by Gov. Harvey were truly valuable, and were thankfully received. Indeed, not a little enthusiasm was manifested as package after package was removed; and I confess to a little pride in saying they came from our city. May I venture to ask our kind ladies still to remember us. Send us of your abundance. We have never yet had half as many slippers and dressing gowns as are needed. Bear in mind that the soldiers coat is heavy and uncomfortable to the weak convalescent.

The Ohio is again on the rise, and threatens to be troublesome in this locality.

APRIL 16TH.—The following is a list of the Wisconsin men who arrived at this hospital on the Hiawatha, of whose arrival I advised you in my last. It has been impossible for me to give it to you sooner.

EIGHTEENTH REGIMENT.—Fred. Wuerstlein, who was with this regiment, in the great battle, on Sunday the 6th inst., returned yesterday.

He was with the lamented Col. ALBAN, until his death, on Wednesday morning. The Colonel was shot about two hours after the battle commenced, at the head of his regiment; the ball entering near the right shoulder-blade, and passing out in the front of the neck.

He bore his sufferings with composure and fortitude, saying he was no better than a mere private. Lieut. Colonel Beall was wounded, at a later period, by a ball which entered his right thigh, and was afterwards extracted. His injuries are supposed not to be mortal. Both he and Col. Alban, near evening on Sunday, were placed side by side on the same boat, at Pittsburgh Landing, and were conveyed to Savannah, after a couple of days, where Col. A. died and was buried.

Fred. did not see Major Crain when he fell; but saw his body, and asserts that it was pierced by more than a dozen wounds; showing that the barbarians must have shot and stabbed him after he fell. He was buried near Col. A., at Savannah.

The 18th regiment was aroused by the attack before they had breakfasted, and were immediately formed into line, in front of the camp, and there fought with desperation, until the greater part were killed, wounded or taken prisoners. He represents the slaughter as terrible.

Fred. himself has a cut through the coat, on the right shoulder, from a blow aimed at his head. He was afterwards knocked down by a rebel, with the butt of his musket, and was carried from the field, and he is still scarcely able to walk. He represents Lieut. Coleman, the acting adjutant of the 18th, as badly wounded by a ball which struck and lodged in his right cheek. His face is dreadfully black and swollen.

The 18th regiment reached the camp ground at 10 o'clock, on Saturday evening, tired and exhausted, and laid down to sleep, without anything to eat, only to wake up in the jaws of death.—Wisconsin.

MONEY TO LOAN

40wtf J. H. PRIGART, Hyatt House.

DR. J. BOVEE DODS' IMPERIAL WINE BITTERS,

ARE made from a pure and unadulterated Wine, which is about double the usual strength of other Wines, and is imported by only one house in the United States. Also, from the following valuable Roots, Herbs, &c., viz: Solomon's Seal, Spikenard, Camomile Flowers, Gentian, Wild Cherry Tree Bark, and Bayberry.

WE CHALLENGE

THEIR EQUAL!

We do not profess to have discovered some Roots "known only to the Indians of South America," and a cure for "all diseases which flesh is heir to," but we claim to present to the public a truly valuable preparation, which every intelligent Physician in the country will approve of and recommend. As a remedy for

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Weak Lungs, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Nervous System, Paralysis, Piles, Diseases peculiar to Females, Debility, and all cases requiring a Tonic, they are

UNSURPASSED!

For Sore Throat, so common among the Clergy, they are truly valuable.

For the aged and infirm, or for persons of a weak constitution—for Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, and all public speakers—for Book-Keepers, Tailors, Seamstresses, Students, Artists, and all persons leading a sedentary life, they will prove truly beneficial.

As a Beverage, they are wholesome, innocent, and delicious to the taste. They produce all the exhilarating effects of Brandy or Wine, without intoxicating; and are a valuable remedy for persons addicted to excessive use of strong drink, and wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free from the poison contained in the adulterated Wines and Liquors with which the country is flooded.

These Bitters not only CURE, but PREVENT Disease, and should be used by all who live in a country where the water is bad, or where Chills and Fevers are prevalent. Being entirely innocent and harmless, they may be given freely to Children and Infants with impunity.

Physicians, Clergymen and temperance advocates, as an act of humanity, should assist in spreading these truly valuable BITTERS over the land, and thereby essentially aid in banishing Drunkenness and Disease.

The only Correct and Complete

HISTORY OF THE WAR.

THE SOUTHERN REBELLION

and the

WAR FOR THE UNION:

A History of the Rise and Progress of the Rebellion,

and

Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,

TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES.

In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the STORY AS IT IS, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand-children, as a memorial of the present time.

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library: and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.

WOULD inform the farmers that he has taken the agency of the being Kirby's Combined Reaper and Mower, to which is attached Powers' Self Raker.

As help will be scarce and wages high during the coming harvest, he is happy to add that the Self Raker can be attached to McCormick's Reaper, and that when attached to either it is warranted to give the best satisfaction or no sale. Also, agent for the which has improvements belonging to it, that makes it superior to all others. To this drill can be added, at small expense, a rake by which 20 acres of stubble can be gleaned in a day, as well as all kinds of hay or grass.

TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES.

In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the STORY AS IT IS, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand-children, as a memorial of the present time.

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library; and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.
